CHRIS BROWN'S BIOGRAPHY

Chris Brown is a lifelong resident of Atlantic County. He is a graduate of Holy Spirit High School and earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Rutgers University. Upon graduation, he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army. He earned his law degree from Widener University School of Law, where he received the Alexander V. Sarcione, Jr. Memorial Award for academic excellence. He was awarded a Haneman-Perskie Scholarship by the Atlantic County Bar Association, and was the recipient of the 1997 Hon. Benjamin A. Rimm Award presented annually to an outstanding young attorney.

Brown served an internship with the Honorable L. Anthony Gibson, the Presiding Judge of the Chancery Division of the New Jersey Superior Court for Atlantic and Cape May Counties for the 1991-1992 court year. He also served a judicial clerkship for the 1992-1993 court year with the Honorable Charles R. Previti, Judge of the New Jersey Superior Court. He presently serves as the Solicitor for the Egg Harbor Township Planning Board, and the Estell Manor Planning/Zoning Board.

Brown served previously as the Judge for the Municipal Court of Galloway Township. Prosecutor of Egg Harbor Township, Solicitor for Atlantic City Council, Atlantic City Board of Education, and Assistant Solicitor for Egg Harbor Township. He also served as the President and Vice-President of the Atlantic County Prosecutors Association from 1995 through 1998.

He is a small business owner where he is the principal member of Christopher A. Brown Counselors at Law, with offices located in Atlantic City and Northfield. Brown is admitted to practice in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association, serving in the Local Government Law section. He is also a member of the Atlantic County Bar Association and the Vincent S. Haneman American Inns of Court and serves as an Arbitrator for the Superior Court in Atlantic County.

In the community, Chris Brown is the founder of the Chief Arthur R. Brown, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which has awarded over $180,000 in scholarships to local students since 1992. He is a member of the Atlantic City Chapter of the NAACP where he serves as Chairman of the Legal Redress Committee. Additionally, Brown serves in the Marine Corps Law Enforcement Foundation, VFW Post 3361, AMVETS POST 911, Clark-Edison American Legion Post 352 and the Atlantic City Jaycees. Brown is the President Elect and former Man of the Year of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick.

Brown is a decorated Army Veteran of the Persian Gulf War. During Operation Desert Storm, he was attached to the 82nd Airborne Division. While serving with the 82nd Airborne Division, Brown was awarded the Bronze Star and Combat Infantryman Badge for his service while spearheading the ground offensive into Iraq.

Brown's military awards also include the Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Southwest Asia Service Medal, Saudi Arabian Liberation of Kuwait Medal, Kuwaiti Liberation of Kuwait Medal, New Jersey Distinguished Service Medal and the New Jersey Desert Storm Medal. Also, as Commander of the 154th S&S Battalion, he was recognized as the outstanding Company grade officer (Army) in the State of New Jersey by the New Jersey National Guard Association and was awarded the Major General James F. Cantwell Award for the year 1994-95.

In 2009, Brown was once again called upon by the United States Army to serve his country in support of operation Iraqi freedom. During the period he was activated into service, he once again honorably served his country.

Chris Brown and his wife Christine have been married for 18 years. They have been blessed with three children, Matthew, Daniel and Mallory.
